

SPRC Research to Practice Webinar Bullying and Suicide Prevention

Co-hosted with the Federal Partners in Bullying Prevention

When: Thursday, February 2, 2012
3:00-4:30 p.m. Eastern Time

Presenters:

Young-Shin Kim, MD, PhD, MS, MPH, Child Study Center, Yale University School of Medicine
Bennett Leventhal, MD, Deputy Director, Nathan Kline Institute for Psychiatric Research

Moderator:

Smita Varia, MA, Prevention Specialist, Suicide Prevention Resource Center

Brief description:

Many schools and communities are struggling to find effective ways to prevent both bullying and suicidal behavior among youth. This webinar will provide the latest research and science on the relationship between bullying and suicide and will outline some of the shared risk and protective factors. The webinar will also discuss the main principles of a comprehensive whole school approach to bullying prevention. This presentation will be interactive, with opportunities to ask questions.

Objectives:

Participants will:

1. Recognize the complex relationship between bullying and suicide.
2. Understand key research findings related to effective bullying prevention approaches.
3. Identify ways to integrate both bullying prevention and suicide prevention into school violence prevention initiatives.
